

Captain Himanshu Joshi is a Naval Veteran who served the Indian Navy for 33 years in various capacities. He has stepped into 'Higher Education' after retiring from the Navy to leverage his past experiences and offer value to modern academic practices. He is an academic entrepreneur and founder of a Learning Solutions company. As an academician, he has engaged with Alliance University, the NA group of institutions, National School of Business. Currently, he is an Adjunct Faculty at Dayananda Sagar University. He teaches Communication, Learning & Development and Strategic Management as academic subjects and undertakes non-academic initiatives like personality development, Image re-shaping and behavioural correction. He has also founded a security agency that employs ex-soldiers to provide security to PSUs. In addition, he prepares young women and men, aspiring to join the Indian Armed Forces on a, Pro-Bono basis. He writes and comments on Geo-Political and contemporary issues over LinkedIn.

As a Naval Officer, he flew Naval Combat Helicopters and Search & Rescue (SAR) missions from Naval Ships. He also flew Coast Guard helicopters for Anti-Smuggling operations and holds an unbeaten record of capturing a Pakistani smuggler's boat carrying 850 KG of contraband gold off the coast of Gujarat in 1998. He was awarded a 'Commendation Badge' from the Director General Coast Guard for this achievement. In addition, he is a specialist in 'Naval Logistics, Administration, and an Assessor of Human Behaviour. As a selector in the Armed forces, he has assessed over 8,000 candidates for the Army, Navy, and Air Force over Sixteen years. Some of his selectees currently hold senior positions in the three services. He holds a Dual MBA in HR & PM and is a qualified Counsellor and Psychotherapist.

Captain Himanshu Joshi can be reached at <https://www.linkedin.com/in/regalshark/> or joshi@dsu.edu.in .

