1. Introduction of the Event

The College of Physiotherapy, Dayananda Sagar University, celebrated SYNAPSE 2025 with great enthusiasm, organized by the Student Council – SANKALP. Beginning in May with a series of off-stage events and sports competitions, the fest culminated on July 12th with a vibrant showcase of student talent, teamwork, and spirit. Team AIKYAM emerged as the overall champions of the fest.

2. Objective of the Event

1. - To foster a culture of creativity, competition, and collaboration among students.
2. - To provide a platform for showcasing cultural and academic talent.
3. - To recognize and reward excellence in academics, sports, and extracurricular activities.
4. - To strengthen bonds between faculty, alumni, and students through shared celebrations.

3. Beneficiaries of the Event

All BPT and MPT students who participated in and attended the cultural, sports, and academic activities.

- Student Council members who gained leadership and organizational experience.
- Faculty and alumni through enhanced engagement with students and college community.

4. Brief Description of the event

The grand finale featured captivating on-stage events such as Soul in Motion and Mr. & Ms. SYNAPSE, judged by esteemed guests including Dr. Kiran Murthy, Mr. Mithun Raju, Dr. Nithya Prakasam, and Mr. Kumara Swamy M S. Prizes were awarded for excellence in off-stage and sports events, acknowledging the diverse talents of the students. Students were also honored for their academic achievements, and the titles of Best Outgoing Student – Male and Female were conferred.

A highlight of the evening was the release of the College of Physiotherapy's newsletter, showcasing the year's achievements and milestones. The Annual Report was also presented, summarizing the academic and extracurricular progress of the institution.

We were proud to welcome our alumna Ms. Moumita Dutta Roy as a guest speaker. Currently serving as a Medical Advisor at ICICI Lombard and Consultant Physiotherapist to corporate companies, she shared her inspiring journey and fond memories of COPT, DSU, motivating current students.

The celebration was a perfect blend of energy, creativity, recognition, and community spirit, marking another successful chapter in the college's legacy.
