About College of Pharmaceutical Sciences (COPS)

Dayananda Sagar College of Pharmacy was started in 1981 to cater to the needs of Pharmacy Education in India under Bangalore university, later Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences, Karnataka. In the year 2015, the institution was renamed "College of Pharmaceutical Sciences" and merged as a branch of the School of Health Sciences, affiliated with Dayananda Sagar University. The college is recognized by PCI, New Delhi and the Government of Karnataka. It is also a recognized Scientific and Industrial Organization by DSIR, Govt of India. The COPS offers B. Pharm., M. Pharm., Pharm. D., and Ph.D. programs. The College has vibrant clusters of innovation ecosystems focused on drug discovery and development; in collaboration with industrial partners and research organizations. It also has an excellent pharmacy practice department dedicated to the betterment of the healthcare community in association with Sagar hospitals, and Dr. Chandramma Dayananda Sagar Institute of Medical Education and Research

About Dayananda Sagar University (DSU)

Dayananda Sagar University is a private university; it has four different campuses in Karnataka. DSU is a proud member of the Dayananda Sagar Institutions family, founded by Late Sri Dayananda Sagar in the early sixties (with just four students). DSU has morphed into a global education powerhouse, spread over four campuses, catering to the education needs of over 17,000 students. Operating under the aegis of the Mahatma Gandhi Vidya Peth Trust in Bengaluru, DSI has enabled the transformation of tens of thousands of young Indians and international citizens into professionals in diverse specializations such as Health Sciences, Engineering, Computer Applications, Arts, and Management in the Bachelor, Master, and Ph.D. levels. Supporting the academic activities are the Centers of Excellence in Drug Discovery, HealthCare, ICT, Energy, and Life Science, among other fast-evolving fields of study. Research, Innovation, and Incubation (spread over 25,000 sq ft of industry quality labs) form the core of DSU.
